

23rd Annual Meeting June 22-23, 2010 Seattle, Washington

The Westin Seattle
1900 Fifth Avenue
Seattle, Washington
(206) 728-1000

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

- Deadline: 5:00 pm (local time) on February 6, 2010
- All aspects of reproductive, maternal, infant, and child health as well as related methodological issues

STUDENT PRIZE PAPER

- Application deadline: March 6, 2010
- Open to all students (graduate or medical), post-docs, trainees, residents, and fellows
- Supports travel and registration plus honorarium

HEINZ BERENDES INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL AWARD

- Application deadline: March 6, 2010
- Open to all persons living outside the US/Canada
- Supports travel and registration plus honorarium

The Society for Pediatric and Perinatal Epidemiologic Research (SPER) is an organization of individuals from a wide variety of disciplines who share a common interest: the epidemiology of pregnancy, infancy and childhood. The objective of the Society is to foster pediatric and perinatal epidemiologic research. This research includes the study of any factors that influence maternal health and the health and development of children, from their conception through their adolescence.

Visit the SPER website for updated information

www.sper.org

or contact: Marcia Feldkamp, Secretary

Email: Marcia.feldkamp@hsc.utah.edu

Phone: (801) 584-8490